

I Am Your God
Part Three: Wait for the Lord
Isaiah 40:18-31
March 17, 2024

1. After great suffering, God would reveal his glory to his people (40:1-5)
 - They were punished because they rebelled against the Lord.
 - Now the Lord promised comfort to them.
 - A time is coming when God's glory will be revealed
2. Though this life is temporary, the Word of God will stand forever (40:6-8)
 - Every person has an unavoidable appointment with death.
 - God's truth gives certainty to face our uncertainty.
3. The God of Israel will carefully shepherd his people (40:9-11)
 - His is their God.
 - He has the power to reward their devotion.
 - He has the compassion to protect and direct them.
4. No one can compare with the true God (40:12-26)
 - He designed all creation.
 - His wisdom is self-generated.
 - The power and wisdom of every nation is nothing when compared with him.
5. Though they may struggle to understand God's ways, he will give new strength to those who wait for him (40:27-31)
 - He is not weak or unaware
 - He gives renewed strength to those who wait on him.
