

I Am Your God
Part Five: Seek the Lord
Isaiah 55:1-9
April 14, 2024

1. Our deepest spiritual longing can only be satisfied by the Lord (Isaiah 55:1-4)
 - We must file for spiritual bankruptcy (55:1)
 - Life has a built-in frustration designed to point us to God (55:2)
 - If we listen and turn to God, he will commit to love us eternally (55:3)
2. Isaiah predicted that through God's chosen people, one day all nations would be called to Him (Isaiah 55:4-5)
3. It's critical to seek the Lord while we have the opportunity (Isaiah 55:6-9)
 - Salvation will not always be available (55:6)
 - Seeking him requires turning to God to pardon our sin (55:7)
 - It requires trusting God's wisdom over our own (55:8-9)
